

The Time Is Now

In just a few days we will be entering into a new Jewish year and it's hard to believe that we are still dealing with the pandemic. As things were progressing so beautifully in the spring, I could not fathom back then that we would still be dealing with this in the fall. Last year's High Holy Days were unprecedented. I really believed that I would only see one unprecedented High Holy Days in my lifetime. And yet, here we are again. Even as I write this, mere days away from Rosh Hashanah, I am not quite sure what to expect.

But here's what I know to be true: we are people who endure; we are people who constantly reinvent millennia old traditions; we are a people who know adversity well and have the resilience of spirit to overcome; we are people who are constantly reinventing what it means to live in a sacred community. Yes, the High Holy Days will again look different than before, but they are still our holy days as we have ritualized them for thousands of years. Ahead of us lies a brand-new year and I can't begin to predict how the new year will unfold for us. However, I pray that it will be a year of peace and blessing and health for each and every one of us.

For the last few years, we have begun the Erev Rosh Hashanah service with the singing of The Time Is Now:

The time is now.
We gather around.
So bring all your gifts,
And bring all your burdens with you.
No need to hide.
Arms open wide.
We gather as one to make a makom kadosh.

We are a people who know that anytime is the right time to begin again - to be renewed and to start over. The fact that we are still living through a pandemic doesn't change that. The time is still now for us to gather together, whether in-person or through the blessing of technology, to make a holy place for our souls, to relieve ourselves of our burdens, atone for our wrongs, and enter into a new year renewed for better. May we complete the year 5782 in a much better place than we are starting it. May we make that a reality through the way we act, through the way we live, and through the way we respond to the world around us.

Shanah Tovah,

High Holy Days Opportunities

We hope you are planning to join us, in person or online, for services. Tickets are required for all in-person services. Sanctuary services will be streamed to our website, YouTube and Facebook.

High Holy Days Family Services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur

Enjoy this service geared for families with young children. Experience the High Holy Days through the eyes of a child. Services will be available on our YouTube channel so you can enjoy them whenever it's convenient for your family.

Tashlich

Tuesday, September 7, 3:00pm

Join us at Donaldson Park for a socially distanced Tashlich where we will toss our sins into the river. We will be splitting into small groups who will rotate with our Temple Clergy to learn more about this ancient ritual and bring it alive today. Bring masks and bread (to toss into the river) and we'll see you there.

Yom Kippur Interim Program

Thursday, September 16, after 2:00pm

Temple members share their stories of how Judaism has influenced their lives. This program will be available to stream on-demand after 2pm on Yom Kippur on YouTube.

Sukkah in the Sky Gathering Monday, Tuesday, & Wednesday September 22, 23, and 24

Join with Temple members and community leaders from the medical, legal, academic and business community. Come share with others who lead our religious and non-profit organizations. If you are interested in joining, please call Nancy Uchrin, Rabbi Bazeley's assistant, at 732-545-6484 to schedule a date.

Lunch and Learn with Rabbi Miller Exploring The Greatest Modern Miracle of Jewish History As She Approaches Age 75!

Wednesday, September 29, 11am - 12:30pm

Believe it or not, before we know it Israel's 75 year of existence will be celebrated. The great modern miracle of Jewish history will be a time for true rejoicing! Yet, many today are confused about the meaning of Israel in our lives, and its place on the stage of modern history. For us, Israel is more than a nation state among the many nations. Join with Rabbi Miller as he explores with us the meaning of Israel's place in our lives, the religious and political realities that we face, some classic Jewish texts that have shaped Jewish life throughout the ages, and what it all means for us as we approach Israel's 75th anniversary.

Due to the uncertainty of Covid, we will be holding this program over Zoom. The zoom link will be in our weekly email a few weeks prior to the program. We hope to be able to come together in person for the next Lunch & Learn on November 3rd.

Simchat Torah & Consecration

Tuesday, September 28, 6:00 pm

To dance and sing with the Torah is to experience absolute rejoicing. There is nothing more wonderful than to see our youngest being lifted up with the Torah as we dance and sing around them. Come join us for a Simchat Torah not to be missed!

Pizza Dinner at 5:00 pm. Please RSVP to Aleshia Rider in the Religious School office at school@aemt.info or 732-545-6484.

Join us Saturday Mornings

All of our adult morning study will be in person and on Zoom. Zoom links will be in our weekly emails and on our website. If you do not receive our weekly email, please call the office with your current email address.

Membership Advancement Program - MAP 9:30am beginning September 18

Led by Rabbi Bazeley and leaders of the MAP Team

The Membership Advancement Program (MAP) is for new Temple members and for Temple members who wish to start thinking seriously about who we are and the meaning of our Jewish lives. This year in MAP we will explore our Jewish identities through studying Torah and seeing how Judaism has evolved from our ancestors until now.

Introduction to Judaism

10:45 am beginning September 18

Join us weekly as we examine the basics of Judaism. We will look at Jewish rituals and holidays, life cycle events and Jewish thought. This is a class open to all, whether member or not, whether Jewish or Jewish Aligned, whether long time member or brand new to the community, this is for you. Join our Clergy, Rabbi Bazeley and Cantor Stanton as well as our Rabbinic Interns, Sienna Lotenberg and Ezra Leventhal for an exciting year of discovery.

Torah Study

9:30am

Led by Cantor Mark Stanton

Join us in our study of the weekly Torah portion. Each Shabbat morning for more than 45 years, Anshe Emeth members have gathered to study Torah and all that it offers us. This class provides an opportunity to explore the rich spiritual meanings and applications of Torah in our daily lives. No previous Hebrew is necessary; the prerequisite is only a desire to learn and grow. Newcomers are always welcome.

Yoga Shalom

Saturday, September 11 at 10:45am

Led by Sharon Einiger and Jen-Eve Frace

Wear comfortable clothing and have your mat or chair ready to use yoga postures and breathing practices to devote time to our spiritual, physical and emotional well-being.

Anshe Emeth Film Series Woman in Gold Sunday, September at 1pm Discussion led by Roz & Steve Shaw

Friday and Saturday, October 8 and 9

This is a "Jewish" (Friday - Saturday) day of community! We welcome all our members to join us - old and new - young and those who feel young. We want to build new connections for all via study, community service, meals and fun.

We begin on Friday, at AEMT, with a special Shabbat Service, dinner and an introductory event. Saturday, we will convene at Eagles Landing Day Camp in North Brunswick. Our day will include all three meals, plus services, opportunities for Torah learning, small group activities and moments for the whole community to participate in together. We will conclude our time together at 5pm on Saturday.

Our hope is you will make new friends, meet new people and continue with your current friendships as well. Please join us for this ANSHE DAY of community.

Online registration will be available soon. Contact Matt Vogel at 732-545-6484 or mvogel@aemt.info for more information.
