

Connections @AEMT

A program for families with young children who are interested in building Jewish values and a commitment to Jewish life

As an inclusive community, we believe that one of the greatest gifts we can give our children is access to a Jewish education. Families with young children in Pre-K through 2nd grade are invited to join Anshe Emeth's Religious School program without the requirement of becoming a Temple member. While your children attend Religious School during the Connections period, your family will have many occasions to connect with other Religious School families and our congregation throughout the year. This is an extraordinary opportunity for your children to embrace their Jewish identity and for your family to experience the joys and beauty of Judaism.

The Renee Reiss & Anita Kaplan Jewish Identity in Literature Series

Jean Hanff Korelitz The Latecomer

We are thrilled to announce that the Renee Reiss & Anita Kaplan Jewish Identity in Literature speaker will be author Jean Hanff Korelitz. She is the author of the novels: The Latecomer (limited series adaptation forthcoming from Kristen Campo's Campout Productions and Bruna Papandrea's Made Up Stories), The Plot (adaptation forthcoming from Hulu, to star Mahershala Ali), You Should Have Known (Adapted for HBO as "The Undoing" by David E. Kelley, directed by Susanne Bier), Admission (adapted as the 2013 film), The Devil and Webster, The White Rose, The Sabbathday River and A Jury of Her Peers.

This year, our lecture series will be in a question-and-answer style rather than a straight lecture, so we encourage everyone to read The Latecomer before the presentation. To help you with that, we have purchased 50 books and will give them out for free for the first 50 people who come by the Temple to pick them up. Please email Nancy Uchirin at rabbisec@aemt.info to make arrangements to get the books.

2024 – 2025 Membership Directory has something new!

New this year – for only $36, you can buy a message box! It's 1/12 of a page! Wish family & friends a Happy Chanukah, wish someone special a happy birthday or happy anniversary, or any other message! You can purchase 1 message box or as many message boxes as you want!

Do you know any businesses that would like to purchase an advertisement? Would you like to sponsor a sixth page, third page, half page, or full page? Look for the Membership Directory mailing in early September to learn more about the ways you can help!

And if this all sounds too exciting to wait until September, please email Toby Feiner at tefeiner@yahoo.com, and she will be happy to answer your questions.

Tisha B'Av Observance Wednesday, July 26, 7:30pm

The 9th of Av is considered the saddest day of the Jewish calendar for it marks all of the moments of destruction in Jewish history. To commemorate these historic events Jews all over the world gather to recall, to remember, and to learn. Join our clergy at the temple for an evening of study and reflection.
